Event/Medical Cannabis/Healthcare/Education

PITTSBURGH – (January 18, 2018) – CMN Holdings, Inc., a trusted leader in medical educational programming, will sponsor a riverboat dinner cruise to kick off Compassionate Certification Centers' World Medical Cannabis Conference & Expo (WMCC Expo) April 12-14, at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center in Pittsburgh.

The Gateway Clipper Cruise will sail along the steel city's famed Three Rivers, from 6:30 – 9:30 p.m., on Friday, April 13. The evening event is open to the public and provides an opportunity to socialize with some of the most recognized leaders and entrepreneurs in the cannabis industry.

Tickets are $249 per person and includes live music, entertainment, and a three-course dinner menu. For reservations visit www.compassionatecertificationcenters.com.

CMN Holdings, Inc. has been a leader in digital display media since the 1980s, and recently partnered with Compassionate Certification Centers to produce and advance the role of cannabis education programming.

Philip M. Cohen, CEO and Chairman of CMN Holdings, Inc., will give a special presentation on developing media trends in the cannabis industry during the Gateway Clipper Cruise. An iconic digital leader, Cohen has transformed the educational healthcare space with multiple networks that broadcast in waiting rooms across the country.

Expo host Compassionate Certification Centers is a Pittsburgh-based company specializing in medical certifications, evaluations, and continued treatment guidance with locations throughout Pennsylvania.

The second-annual WMCC Expo will feature hundreds of exhibitors and high-profile medical, financial, sports, and cannabis industry speakers. Nearly 6,000 attendees are expected at the WMCC Expo, including hundreds of exhibitors and high-profile medical, financial, sports and cannabis industry speakers.
