PITTSBURGH – (January 26, 2018) – Cannabis industry advocate and nationally recognized entrepreneur Cheryl Shuman will headline a riverboat dinner cruise and fundraiser to celebrate the 2nd Annual World Medical Cannabis Conference & Expo (WMCC Expo), April 12-14, at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center in Pittsburgh.

The Gateway Clipper Cruise will sail along the steel city’s famed Three Rivers, from 6:30 – 9:30 p.m., on Friday, April 13. The evening event is open to the public and provides an opportunity to socialize with some of the most recognized leaders and entrepreneurs in the cannabis industry.

Tickets start at $75 per person, on site tickets available for $100. The evening includes live music, entertainment, and a three-course dinner menu. A portion of the proceeds will benefit the Disabled American Veterans and Make a Wish foundations.

The evening event is sponsored by CMNHI Holdings Inc., a trusted leader in medical educational programming and Legally Mine, the largest lawsuit protection company in the nation.

Known as the “Martha Stewart of Cannabis,” Shuman has decades of experience in marketing and business development. She is the CEO and Founder of Cheryl Shuman Media and the Beverly Hills Cannabis Club, as well as Executive Director at Moms for Marijuana, the largest women's cannabis activism group in the world.

Shuman is proud to be a part of the WMCC Expo, as an Appalachian native and industry forerunner, “Having this high caliber event in Pittsburgh helps raise industry awareness in middle America. Legal cannabis has the potential to lead job creation in this region, as well as curb the opiate epidemic,” stated Shuman.

Hosted by Compassionate Certification Centers the WMCC Expo will feature hundreds of exhibitors and high-profile medical, financial, sports, and cannabis industry speakers. Over 5,000 attendees are expected, including hundreds of exhibitors and high-profile medical, financial, sports and cannabis industry speakers.
